8:45-9:00

Welcome and Introduction

9:00-12:35

Learn how to maximize your resources during three sessions led by local world language teachers.

Teachers will have the opportunity to explore and discuss their own resources throughout the sessions. Bring a computer or other device and/or classroom materials to show and discuss.

12:35-12:45

Wrap-up and survey

You will learn great strategies to get your students engaged in the target language and culture. You'll have the opportunity to share your own experiences and ideas during presentations from local high school teachers. There will be opportunities for you to collaborate in small groups with your colleagues to discuss strategies and ideas for all levels. You may bring your laptop or other device to enhance collaborative time and reference your own materials!

REGISTER HERE!

$10 Registration fee includes continental breakfast, conference materials, and access to an online group with materials and discussion boards.

Please forward this invitation to other language educators. All—current, retired, and future—world language teachers are welcome.

"The mission of the Association of World Language Educators is to provide world language educators the opportunity to meet with other like-minded professionals to share methodologies, techniques and strategies that will enhance individual classrooms and the profession as a whole."
